A Life Full of Power and Grace: Acts 6:8

- Recall as a group some of Jesus’ miracles he performed.
- Share with one another miracles you have seen with your or heard about.
- Do you still believe God performs miracles?
- Discuss the importance of living a life of grace and how you have experienced the blessing of someone living out the grace that Christ followers are to have.

A Life Full of Knowledge and Wisdom: Acts 6:10

- Discuss the difference between knowledge and wisdom.
- Read Stephen’s speech as a group, Acts 7:1-53. Go through the speech and point out the events of the Old Testament that Stephen speaks about. Why do you think it is important for us to continue to have knowledge of these events from our history?
- Having knowledge of the events from the history of our faith is one thing, share an event from history that has given you wisdom in how to handle situations, good or bad in your life.

A Life Full of the Spirit: Acts 7:54-60

- Take some time to talk about what a Spirit filled life looks like.
- Do you feel like Christians rely on the Holy Spirit in their lives? What would our church look like if collectively as we are lead by the Spirit?
- Talk about the evidence of the Spirit you have seen at Grace.

Close with prayer that Grace and her members be filled Grace, Power, Knowledge, Wisdom and the Holy Spirit.
