

Bold Living (Acts 18:18-28)

His voice leads not into timid discipleship but into bold witness.

~ Charles Stanley

Boldly Committed (Acts 18:18-22)

- Christian disciplines like making a vow doesn't save us, but how can they help us?
- Discuss what your favorite spiritual discipline (prayer, reading of scripture, silence, solitude etc...) is to practice.
- If comfortable, share with the group a new behavior you are going to commit to or a time you have done that in the past.

Boldly Correcting (Acts 18:23-26)

- Apollos was an educated man in the scriptures but had a few things wrong, how comfortable are you telling someone more educated than you they are wrong?
- What are some false teachings churches have had to deal with?
- Describe a time in which you had to correct a false teaching.

Boldly Corrected (Acts 18:27-28)

- What's the best Christ centered advice you have ever been given?
- How do you feel when corrected?
- What's the best way to bring something to your attention that will create change in your beliefs?

Pray for our church that we live boldly and receive discipline boldly.

Bold Living (Acts 18:18-28)

His voice leads not into timid discipleship but into bold witness.

~ Charles Stanley

Boldly Committed (Acts 18:18-22)

- Christian disciplines like making a vow doesn't save us, but how can they help us?
- Discuss what your favorite spiritual discipline (prayer, reading of scripture, silence, solitude etc...) is to practice.
- If comfortable, share with the group a new behavior you are going to commit to or a time you have done that in the past.

Boldly Correcting (Acts 18:23-26)

- Apollos was an educated man in the scriptures but had a few things wrong, how comfortable are you telling someone more educated than you they are wrong?
- What are some false teachings churches have had to deal with?
- Describe a time in which you had to correct a false teaching.

Boldly Corrected (Acts 18:27-28)

- What's the best Christ centered advice you have ever been given?
- How do you feel when corrected?
- What's the best way to bring something to your attention that will create change in your beliefs?

Pray for our church that we live boldly and receive discipline boldly.